

VINTAGE: 2016

APPELLATION: Sierra Foothills, California

VARIETAL: 100% Zinfandel

VINEYARD: Like many of our wines we are not allowed to disclose the specific vineyard/winery where the grapes were grown. In order for us to be able to deliver this kind of sub appellation quality at steep discounts, we must often sign non disclosure agreements with the vineyards. *This 2016 Zinfandel came from a large and reputable winery located in the heart of the Sierra Foothills at approximately 2400 ft. elevation.

COOPERAGE: 50% in stainless tanks; 50% in barrels for 10 months. 8% new American medium toasted barrels and the remaining in neutral French and American barrels.

TECHNICAL DATA: RS 1.2 g/L, TA 3.44

ALCOHOL: 14.7%

RELEASE DATE: February 2018

UPC: 850440002917

TASTING NOTES: This wine starts with a beautiful opaque purple color that exhibits pretty floral and dark fruit aromatics. A classic Sierra Foothills flavor profile of blackberry, plum and rugged open field spices. The finish is a silky mouth feel, with a hint of black pepper, that leaves flavors lingering on your palate.